

The same delayed filter is the best scheme tested at 0.5 m/s and falls in a fifth of episodes at 1.0 m/s.

Evaluating a smoothing filter only at low speed records it as a success and then fails on deployment.

On the policy trained without effort terms the delayed scheme falls in 37% of episodes overall, and in every episode at 1.0 m/s.